Jennifer,
 Thank you for the reminder on the website update. We will be starting the plant around the second week in November and finishing the painting and floor coverings near the end of November. We should be ready for a tour in December if you are interested in seeing the finished product.
 Thanks,
 Joe

Hi Joe,
 Just wondering how construction is coming along...in looking at the website, it was last updated July 2018. Is construction wrapping up?
 Jen
